

Position Description

Residential Roofer

Hourly Wage: DOE

Regular, full-time position, non-exempt

Reports to: Residential Roofer

Summary Statement: The primary duties for a Residential Roofer involve repairing, replacing and installing roofs on residential homes and properties. Able to work with a diverse team, have problem solving skills, basic math functions, including measurements. A qualified Residential Roofer performs all duties and responsibilities described below with minimum supervision.

Duties and Responsibilities:

1. Able to Install, replace or repair composite shingle roofs.
2. Able to remove various types of roofing materials.
3. Able to install roofing materials correctly.
4. Able to meet required deadlines set by the Foreman.
5. Able to comply with safety protocols.
6. Foster positive relationships with other team members.
7. Responsible for being punctual (coming to work on time).
8. Communicating with the Foreman (examples, damages, job site close calls, accidents, HR issues, etc.).
9. Responsible for cleanliness, maintenance of equipment, tools and vehicles.
10. Responsible for a clean jobsite area.
11. Perform additional related duties as requested.

Qualifications and Requirements:

1. High School diploma or equivalent.
2. Preferred experience in installing and repairing composite shingles.
3. Must have good problem-solving skills.
4. Carry out basic math functions, including taking measurements.
5. Able to collaborate with a multi-cultural team.
6. Ability to communicate effectively with co-workers and supervisors.
7. Current and valid Oregon driver's license preferred.

Employee

Date

Project Manager

Date

General Manager

Date

Human Resources

Date